Good morning:

Testing went well yesterday. I did ask about the senior leadership team having an opportunity to ride the attraction. They offered to send a list of dates and times for that can be made available. I know they are eager to get people on the ride to gather input on the experience. It is a high energy experience for sure.

Have a great day.

[REDACTED] Thanks for the heads up.

Will you ask about any opportunity to take the senior leadership team to Guardians for a ride once cleared?

Thanks

Good morning:

We are close to making final arrangements for testing at the Guardians of the Galaxy attraction in EPCOT. Currently testing might take place tomorrow 3/9/22 and could take all day (7-4). The WDI team still has a few major details to provide to us that will determine if the testing can be done tomorrow. With that in mind I most likely won't be able to attend this meeting.

Thanks.
