Subject: RE: New Charter

The Osceola County stipulation is not in the old charter. So we did not think it was necessary to add it into the new charter. The Orange County stipulation was in the old charter so we thought it was important to keep it in the new charter.

Team:

Wondering about the Osceola County Stipulation re: Drainage (see attached).

[REDACTED] noticed that the new Charter (see below):

1. repeals the decree in chancery No. 66-1061 entered by the Circuit Court
2. Says that, notwithstanding the repeal, the Stipulation with Orange County continues to be binding

3. No reference is made to the Stipulation with Osceola County

Oversight?

Section 5. Chapter 67-764, Laws of Florida, and the decree in chancery No. 66-1061 entered by the Circuit Court in and for the Ninth Judicial Circuit of the State of Florida on May 13, 1966, creating and incorporating the Reedy Creek Drainage District as a public corporation of the State of Florida, are repealed.

Section 6. Notwithstanding the repeal of the decree and chancery No. 66-1061, the stipulation dated September 29, 1966, by and between the Reedy Creek Drainage District and Orange County, filed and entered in the proceeding then pending in the Circuit Court of the Ninth Judicial Circuit in and for Orange County, Florida, being Case No. Chancery 66-1061, shall continue to be effective and binding on the Reedy Creek Improvement District, now known as the Central Florida Tourism Oversight District, and Orange County and applicable to any plan of reclamation now or hereafter adopted by the Central Florida Tourism Oversight District unless and until revised or terminated by agreement of the parties thereto.
